

Wallscourt Farm Academy

Term 2 is now well underway, and we have lots of exciting things planned for the term ahead. We have been linking with the community around Wallscourt Farm with a range of exciting learning opportunities happening. We have also been really busy planning seasonal events and celebrations to take us right up to the end of term! Read on for updates from the Oak Learning Zone...!

Issue 6, November 2013

Learning and community updates

Learning conferences- Please make sure you have booked in for a meeting with your child's key team from Oak Learning Zone on Monday 18th or Wednesday 20th November.

School Meals- We are so pleased that lots of children have been trying and enjoying the delicious school meals. We have a new menu starting this term, and a Festive Feast on the 10th December so please do check it out!

Parking- Please note, the car park, which families are using, is actually the Staff Car Park in the coming months as the drop-off zone is finished we will need to lock this car park as it is not officially for parents. Our Travel Plan encourages walking and scooting where possible.

Parent Forum at Wallscourt Farm

WE ARE LOOKING FOR VOLUNTEERS TO JOIN US TO FORM A PARENTS/FAMILIES FORUM FOR WALLSCOURT FARM

We are hoping to set up a Parents/Carers group to think about social events and developing the Wallscourt Farm Academy Community. It would be great to involve you- see Miss Weaver for more info.

Uniform Update

The new jackets are in stock and look great!

PLEASE MAKE SURE YOUR CHILD'S UNIFORM IS LABELLED CLEARLY WITH THEIR NAME. Please don't just write the name on the label- mark the collar. Several jumpers and cardigans have gone missing and with 50 all the same we need them to say who they belong to.
